

- 1 How do you feel?
- 2 Can you come with me?
- 3 Please finish the report on time
- 4 He can go.
- 5 Could you call me tonight, please.
- 6 Yesterday afternoon, I went into town to get my hair cut.
- 7 He thinks he has the time
- 8 He can go and catch the train at five
- 9 He said that he wrote to me at the beginning of September
- 10 She told him to put it on the table
- 11 Give me a call next Monday and I can let you have the details then.
- 12 They bought one at the beginning of last week.
- 13 He started to write the report but he needs more details in order to finish it.
- 14 We parked the car outside and went in through the main entrance.
- 15 Why not try and finish what you've begun before trying to start something new?
- 16 It's a pity you can't come and see me next week-end.
- 17 I really don't see why you can't make lunch half an hour earlier.
- 18 What worries us most is to know whether the plane will be in time for us to catch our connection.
- 19 He said that he asked us to give him one.
- 20 Reading is of no purpose at all unless you can first understand and then remember what you read.
- 21 Many places are smoke-free, so that if you want to smoke in someone's office, house or car, you had better ask first.
- 22 I think the best thing would be to organize the meeting in our office in order to avoid unnecessary expenses.
- 23 When you consider the price you have to pay and the quality of service you get, one wonders how they can do business at all.
- 24 Drivers should always study the map carefully before they begin on their journey, as it's dangerous to drive and read at the same time.
- 25 Whenever you go into a shop, someone is sure to come up to you and ask if you need anything and will then follow you around.